Ferrara, Oct. 1.

'TIS advis'd from Bologna, that General Marſigli was ſet out from thence for the Ferrareze, to view Argenta and the Canal which runs from Longaſtrino to Comacchio, and to drive the Germans from thence. They write from Agoſtino, that the Imperialiſts having fallen upon 70 of the Pope's Soldiers commanded by Lieutenant Fantini, kill'd that Lieutenant and 14 Men, and wounded 22. We hear, that General Marſigli has chang'd the Garriſon of Ponte de Lago Scuro, and withdrawn the Blockade of Comacchio; and that the Troops which were employ'd in that Blockade, are to come hither and to Bologna. This Place is well provided with all things neceſſary for its Defence, and the Garriſon of Fort Urbano is reinforc'd.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 19.

Venice, Oct. 6. General Marſigli having view'd the Poſt of Lago Scuro, has order'd ſome new Fortifications to be made there, as alſo at Bondeno. The Pope's Troops with a good Number of Peaſants, made a Motion towards Magnavacca, to induce the Garriſon of Comacchio to make a Sally, having other Troops ready to throw themſelves into the Place aſſoon as the Sally ſhould be made; but the Imperialiſts keeping quiet, the Pope's Forces retir'd. A good Quantity of Ammunition and Proviſions, with ſome Cannon, arriv'd a few Days ago at Comacchio.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Oct. 19.

Venice, Oct. 6. They write from Lombardy, that the Imperialiſts are forming a Camp at Final di Modena; and that they deſign to make a Place of Arms of the City of Modena, with the Conſent of the Duke of that Name, who 'tis reported will be made Governor General of the State of Milan.

Letters from Florence of the 29th of September, ſay the Marſhal de Theſſe was expected there from Genoa, and with him the Marquis de Monteleone Plenipotentiary of King Philip V.

They write from Genoa, that the new Levies were continued by that Republick; and that they kept Men hard at work on the Fortifications of Savona, againſt which Place they were apprehenſive the Duke of Savoy had form'd ſome Deſign, becauſe his Royal Highneſs had given Order for repairing the Roads which lead thither from Piemont, and had caus'd ſome Mortars to be tranſported from Oneglia to Final.

Spires, Oct. 13. The Elector of Hanover is at Schwetſingen; and 'tis ſaid the Winter Quarters for the Army he commands are ſettled: 'Tis alſo ſaid that M. du Bourg who commands the French Army on the Upper Rhine, in the Abſence of the Elector of Bavaria, has receiv'd from the Court of France the Regulation of Winter Quarters for his Troops. A great Quantity of Ammunition and Proviſions is collecting, for ſtoring the Magazines of Landau, and Waggons are ſummon'd in to carry them thither. The Elector of Hanover has ſent the Baron Gallardy, an Imperial Collonel, to Vienna with a ſecret Commiſſion.

Landau, Oct. 13. The Cavalry in our Neighbourhood, commanded by the Counts de Mercy and de la Tour, have erected Sheds (of Barracks) in which they are very commodiouſly Quarter'd. The Adjacent Country is to furniſh them with Provender for one Month longer; on which Condition they have oblig'd themſelves not to go out to Forrage. Some Inhabitants of the Diſtrict of Kroon Weiſſenbourg have been ſetch'd off, to force that Town to furniſh 3000 Rations of Hay, and 2000 Florins in Money. On the other Hand, the French ſiez'd Yeſterday the Magiſtrate and ſome other Inhabitants of Nuſdorf, by way of Repriſal; and afterwards demanded of our Magiſtrates 42000 Rations of Hay of 15 pound each Ration, to be deliver'd into the Royal Magazine at Weyſſenboug, one Half within 3 Days, and the reſt within 16.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Oct. 20.

Paris, Octob. 15. 'Tis advis'd from Italy, that a Detachment of Imperialiſts were come to Final di Modena; and that their Number augmenting daily, they were increas'd to a Body of 10000 Men. 'Twas reported as certain, that the firſt Attempt they intended to make, was to attack the Bridge of Lago Scuro, on the Po three Leagues from Ferrara, (of which Poſt the Pope's Troops are poſſeſs'd,) as being of the greateſt Importance to them, for opening a Communication by that River between Mantua and Comacchio; but the Pope's Troops who are well aware of the Advantagiouſneſs of that Poſt, ſpare no Labour to fortify themſelves in it. Theſe Advices add, that in a few Days the Pope would name ſuch a Perſon to be Generaliſſimo of his Forces, that the World will wonder to hear it.

Yeſterday came hither a Domeſtick Servant of the Elector of Bavaria, who reports, that his Electoral Highneſs being a Hunting, between Compiegne and Paris, had been met and conferr'd with by M. de Chamillard, the King of France's firſt Miniſter; and that their Diſcourſe ran chiefly upon the War in Italy.
